Henry was confirmed in the Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Annville, Pa. on May 20, 1830. Henry moved, with his parents, to Ohio in about 1832. Henry and his family moved from Ohio to DeKalb Co., Ind. on May 12, 1845 or in May of 1847. They settled in Union Twp. (now Grant Twp.).

Elizabeth united with the Evangelical Church when she was 12 years old and remained a member of that Church through out her life. One of the newspaper obituaries of her death stated that she was a niece of Bishop Long [Joseph Long].

There is a descrepance with the date of birth for Henry Stroh. The date of birth as shown in the baptism records of the Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Annville, Pa. are closest to the time of the event and therefore are most likely accurate. The date of birth as given in his obituary and calculated from the date of death & age on his tombstone would be Sept. 19, 1814.

Henry left Pennsylvania about 1830 and settled in Wayne Co., Ohio. He again moved about 1846 and settled in DeKalb Co., Ind.

The following is from the newspaper "Der Christliche Botschafter" of Feb. 15, 1847:
"Die gently and happy in the Lord, on the 9th of m. in DeKalb County, Indiana, Brother Heinrich Stroh, at the age of 58 years 7 months and 7 days. He was sick for a long time from an old injury and was bed ridden for only about one week. Brother S. walked with God for 14 years, and since then was for the most time in service as a class leader in our congregation. He leaves behind a grieving widow and 5 children to be taken care of, but not without hope." Note that his tombstone gave his age as 59 years.

There are several discrepancies with the date of birth for Henry & Catharine [Ulrich] Stroh's children. The date of birth as shown in the baptism records of the Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Annville, Pa. are closest to the time of the event and therefore most likely accurate. The discrepancies are as follows:

Henry - Sept. 19, 1814
calculated from date of death & age on tombstone
per obituary

William - Jan. 22, 1815
calculated from date of death & age on tombstone
per obituary
per biographical sketch in 1885 DeKalb Co., Ind. History per biographical sketch of William's son Adam Stroh in 1914 DeKalb Co., Ind. History

Adam - Jan. 15, 1821
calculated from date of death & age on tombstone

Adam - Nov. 19, 1821
per Adam Stroh Family Record Book

John Mottinger's father settled near the village of Inland in Summit Co., Ohio and was one of the early settlers of Columbiana Co., Ohio, having settled there about 1812. He entered land upon which the village of New Lisbon now stands. During the War of 1812 John's father enlised in the army and through exposure in the service he contracted diease from which he eventually died. John moved from New Lisbon about 1830 and settled in Green Twp. where he purchased 135 acres. John was a carpenter by trade and assisted by Peter Buchtel, built the Evangelical Church edifice at Greensburg. He was a member of that congragation. In 1865 he sold his farm in Green Twp. and moved to Will Co., Ill. John was living in the Village of Plainfield, Plainfield Twp., Will Co., Ill. in 1870 and at that time his occupation was listed as a carpenter. In 1880 John was living with his son Samuel.

Daniel J. Mottinger's home, which was built shortly before 1891, stood on the site of his parent's home. The 1873 Atlas of Summit Co., Ohio shows Daniel Mottinger owning 75 acres in Section 15 and 16 of Green Twp.

John Mottinger was sometime referred to as the Rev. John Mottinger. He and his brother Rev. George Mottinger took an active part in the early development of the Evangelical Church in Ohio. Other Evangelical preachers in John Mottinger's immediate family included:

Bishop Joseph Long brother-in-law
Rev. Adam Stroh son-in-law
Rev. Jacob Burkett son-in-law
Rev. Peter W. Hahn son-in-law

Per the obituary of Anna Barbara, she gave birth to 11 children, with one dying in infancy. Also per her obituary, she was sickly for a number of years before her death, dropsy of the heart was the final cause of death.

1830 Salem Twp., Columbiana Co., Ohio
1840 Green Twp., Summit Co., Ohio
1850 Green Twp., Summit Co., Ohio
1860 Green Twp., Summit Co., Ohio
1870 Village of Plainfield, Plainfield Twp., Will Co., Ill.
1880 Plainfield Twp., Will Co., Ill.

Summit Co., Ohio Tombstone Inscriptions [11] shows the following: Anna K. Mottinger, dau. of J. & B. Mottinger, died July 27, 1883, aged 2y 3m 11d [born about April 16, 1881], buried Klinefelter Cemetery, Green Twp., Summit Co., Ohio - Note this information is from a book of cemetery inscriptions, if 1883 was misread for 1833 then she would be John & Barbara's dau.

Mary Ann Dauberman
Born: Nov. 1, 1801 Centre County, Pa. [48]
Died: April 29, 1877 Plainfield, Will Co., Illinois [48]
Children: 6 sons & 4 daughters by 1st marriage [49]

Spouse #1: Michael Dillman [48]
Born: about 1798 Potter Twp., Centre Co., Pa. [49]
Died: Feb. 20, 1864 [48 49]

Spouse #2: John Mottinger [48]

Soon after Michael Dillman and Mary Dauberman were married they moved to Summit Co., Ohio. In 1849 they again moved to Plainfield, Will Co., Illinois. [48]

George's will was dated Sept. 15, 1814 and probated in the Nov. Term of 1814. The inventory of George's estate mentions 2 legacies from the deceased father and brother.

George probably served in Capt. William McLaughlin's Company in the First Regiment, Second Brigade, Fourth Division, Ohio Militia which was organized on May 8, 1806 in Columbiana Co., Ohio

By 1816 there was an exodus of Evangelical families, from Pennsylvania, settling in Ohio. Among these Evangelical settlers was the Rev. Henry Stambach who held religious services as he had been accustomed to in Pennsylvania. These meeting were held in the homes of Jacob Kern and the widow Mattinger [Elizabeth (Lashbaugh) Mottinger], whose sons, John and George Mattinger, became Evangelical preachers in later years.

In the Western Palladium dated July 4, 1844 James Callihan petitioned for divorce from Elizabeth for "wilful absence & gross neglect of duty".

David born Sept. 8, 1804 [12 14] [bapt. May 6, 1805 Zion Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, Pa. - parents Kilian Lang & wife Barbara - sponsors parents]

Killian Long left Dauphin Co., Pa. in 1805 and settled in Allegheny Co., Pa., settling about 12 miles south-west of Pittsburg. There he secured several hundred acres of land. There Killian and his wife raised flax, which Mrs. Long spun and wove into clothing for the family. She also wove and made twilled grain bags, for which she realized one dollar apiece in Pittsburg. In this way she managed to raise from fifty to one hundred dollars a year. Killian was a carpenter in addition to farming. They moved to Columbiana Co., Ohio in 1817. He entered the greater portion of Section 21 in Salem Twp., Columbiana Co., Ohio. This land was heavily timbered, underlaid with limestone, quite rolling, hence free from swamps and their deadly miasma, healthful, and well adapted to farming and family life. At his death this land was divided among his children: 3 sons and 4 daughters.

Killian was a private in the 2nd Battalion, 8th Company, Pennsylvania Militia, Capt. Jno. Gassert and Capt. Mathias Henning, July 9, 1782. Also in Capt. Henning's Campany in 1784-1786, and in Capt. Melchor Behney's Company, 2nd Battalion, Dauphin County Militia, in 1786-1787.

Barbara (Braun) Long suffered with consumption for several years before her death. About 2 months before her death, she suffered a light stroke. She finally suffered another stroke which left her unconscious and her breathing became weaker until she passed away. About 1818 she joined the Evangelical Association. Barbara's obituary stated she was "of Berks Co., Pa.".

The book, Bishop Joseph Long The Peerless Preacher Of The Evangelical Association, records the following about Jospeh Long caring for this aged parents:
"His aged parents became quite feeble and had no one to properly care for them. Father Kilian Long was about seventy, and Mother Barbara Long about sixty-five years old. The eldest son was not reliable, and the youngest son was somewhat feeble-minded, not about to support his own family. Hence the aged parents insisted that their son Joseph, who "was man every inch of him," must stay at home for the time being and take charge of things generally, so that they might live out their few remaining days restfully and died in peace. At one time Bro. Long, while Bishop, was asked by Rev. Zacharias Hornberger, of the Central Pa. Conference, why he located at that time, when his services were so much needed, to which he replied in his peculiar sententious manner as follows: "At that time I had three families to support. First, my own growing family; second, my aged parents; and third, my weak younger brother's family". We have now ascertained that it was a matter of duty, that he withdrew from the itinerancy in 1833, in which relation he remained till 1841 - eight years. During this time he provided for his family. He obtained possession of a portion of the forest-land owned by his father, together with the old homestead, which, however, was yet in an uncultivated condition, needing much improvement. Much of the land had yet to be cleared, which required severe, unremitting labor. He had now to make payment on the land, provide for his family, largely support the aged parents, and also help his weaker brother. He went to work cutting down the forest, building fences, etc., and as the timber was heavy, furnishing good saw-logs, he built a saw-mill upon a small creek running through the place. This mill he ran mostly in bad weather, when he could not well do anything else; or after he had toiled hard all day, he would start the mill in the evening and run it often till after midnight. By dint of hard labor and good management, he succeeded in the course of eight years in providing for his family and meeting all obligations. His mother having meanwhile departed for a better world, the father being provided for, and his farm being improved to such a degree that he could entrust it to a faithful and competent servant, he again entered the itinerancy in 1841, in which relation he labored faithfully till death called him away in 1869."

Killian Long's son Joseph was an early leader of the Evangelical Church in Ohio. The book "The Evangelical Church In Ohio - Being a history of the Ohio Conferences and Merged Conferences of the Evangelical Church in Ohio, now the Evangelical United Brethren Church 1816-1951 by Roy B. Leedy published 1959, has pictures of Joseph Long on pages 159 & 733. There is also a biographical sketch of Joseph Long on pages 732 to 735.

Henry enlisted at Sunbury, Pennsylvania as a private in Capt. John Harris's Company, Col. William Cooks's 12th Pennsylvania Regiment. He enlisted in 1776 to serve 3 years. He was discharged at Philadelphia at the end of his 3 years service. He was in the Battle of Piscataway and the Battle of Ash Swamp.

In 1818 he applied for a pension. At that time he was a resident of Sunbury, Pennsylvania and was 67 years of age. Starting June 3, 1818 he received a pension of $8.00 per month.

In 1820 he was residing in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania and was 70 years of age. He stated he was a shoemaker by trade, but by age and infirmities was not able to pursue that occupation. Residing with him was his wife Elizabeth, aged 57 years (born about 1763) and step daughter Nancy, aged 11 years (born about 1809).

Henry is believed to have been living in Stark Co., Ohio between 1839 and 1841.

Killian was a private in the 1st Battalion, Provincial Soldiers, as is recorded on March 28, 1756, Lt. Com. Conrad Weiser, Major Wm. Parsons, Capt. Foulk. Killian was Overseer of Roads in Dauphin County in 1775 and Overseer of the Poor in 1780. In addition to the land which he inherited and purchased from his father, Killian also owned a lot [No. 102] in Jonestown [then known as Williamsburg]. Killian was a active member of the Reformed Church in Jonestown, Pennsylvania.

The following is an accounting made by Magdalana (Fridruhen) Lang on the estate of her sister, Anna Barbara, who died at sea while sailing to America. In 1930 this paper, written in German script, was in the possession of Miss Minnie Capp of Lebanon, Pa.
Bethel Township, Dauphin County, in Pennsylvania, the 27th of October 1794
Because the Court demands in on account of a request from Bohrbach in Europe in an official communication to Lawyer George Haas of Dauphin Township, this is signed. To Fridrin of Steinmetz and attested by Pro. Cap. Hatzfelt that I, Killian Lang and my wife Madadelene nee' Fridruhen of Borbach are hereby given a true inventory with the customary oath and attorney's signature signed by us and attested to by us stating what we have received and inherited after the death of Anna Barbara Fridruhen, married Heinzelin. In order to ascertain what Magdalene nee' Fridruhen received from her parents in money, clothing, etc., for her trip, therefore we the undersigned, Killian Lang and Magdalene Lang nee' Fridruhen by our oath as follows before the magistrate, John Gloninger, Esquire, do make, the following inventory correctly set up and our account is hereby given.

Inventory of money and goods belonging to the deceased. Gottleib Heintzel and his lawful wife, Anna Barbara nee Fridruhen, received from Killian Lang and his wife Magdalene as heirs of the about mentioned deceased. 1754, March. In September on St. Michael's Day 1753, I, Magdalene Langin, nee' Fridruhen arrived in Philadelphia from Europe and I sold at public auction the estate of my sister Anna Barbara about in the month of March. The amount received of this public auction was about L21-2-9.

The following was not sold at auction but kept by me Magdalene Langin.

1 bed with feathers	L5
1 kettle]copper]	L1-10
1 old skirt	10
cloth, apron [colored] of flax cloth	7-6
miscellaneous things 2 small pots, etc.	12-0
1 hand iron	5-0
1 scarf	1-6
	L29-01-9

Of the about mentioned inventory, we, Killian Lang and Magdalene have the following account to be deducted.

In the Fall of 1753, I, Magdalene Langin borrowed of my employer W. Filtzenweger, the money to pay half of the freight of my brother-in-law, Gottleib Heintzel, who died in England, and also the whole freight for my sister Anna Barbara Heintzel, who died on the trip at sea. All of the above I paid making a total of L21-02-0. [L5 for him L10 for her] [without board and expense]

My service to my brother-in-law aboard ship having had [? rabies ?] taking care of him, setting up for 10 days and 10 nights L5

Services to my sister aboard ship taking care of her for 1 whole month L5

totaling L31-02-9 [L21-02-9 plus 5L plus L5]

There remains unto us a balance from the estate of Gottleib Heintzel and his wife Anna Bar. nee Fried. L1-14-0 [L31-02-9 less 29-08-9]

Following is an inventory of all the I, Mag. Langin nee' Fridruhen received of my parents in Borbach in Europe.

I hereby declare under oath that out of me services I came with my sister and brother-in-law to America and paid the freight and expense after my arrival in America. The expense of travel from Borbach to Rotterdam I paid out of my savings in Europe. I have received no money from my parents and relatives except one linen skirt and two worn half linen skirts, one [mutzen] cap and two shirts worth about 15-0 cloth for 3 shirts and a table cloth 18-0

The about inventory we have conscientiously and legally drawn up and placed our hand and seal thereto, done at Bethel Township, Dauphin County in Pennsylvania 27th day, Anno Domini, 1794.

This inventory a copy whereof was sent by George Haas to Europe, was 27th of October, 1794 proved on oath before John Gloninger, Esq. Judge of the Common Pleas for the County of Dauphin and by him attested.

Urban moved with his parents to Hickorytown [now Lancaster, Penn.]. In his early years, he conducted a subscription school. Urban, with his family, left Hickorytown and settled in Earl Twp., Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania at a point about a mile and a half south of Ephrata, on Mill Creek. Here he secured a warrant for a tract of land on Sept. 11, 1734 called "First Mill". This tract contained 161 1/2 acres which he later sold to George Matter. On leaving Earl Twp., Urban and family located about a mile from Jonestown, Bethel Twp., Lebanon Co., Pennsylvania. Urban made an agreement with the Indians for all the land between the Swatara River and the Grubb mountain, and as far as they could walk in three days. On this tract, he erected a log house which was still standing in 1930. Urban was required to secure a patent for this land from the Proprietors of the Province. Therefore, on June 17, 1742 he secured a patent for 50 acres, Warrant No. 130. On Jan. 30, 1749 he secured a patent for 225 acres, Warrant No. 257. On Jan. 16, 1767 he secured a patent for 15 acres and 67 perches, Warrant No. 319.

Christian came to America in about 1683/4, landing at Germantown, now Philadelphia, Pa. On the voyage to America he became acquainted with a young German girl, who he married. Sometime after 1706 Christian, with his family, moved to Hickorytown [now known as Lancaster] Pennsylvania. He is recorded as a resident of Lancaster in 1718/9.

Catharina married John Urban Lang

Ludwig Blum was one of the pioneers who left Scholarie, New York, traveling down the Susquehanna River to where the Swatara Rivers unites with it. At this point he followed the Swatara River, and settled in the Tulpehocken district. His location is shown on a drawing of the Tulpehocken Valley homesteads in 1723, near Tulpehocken Creek. In 1738 he was one of notable accessions to the Ephrata Community. He was the musician who virtually introduced the system of music peculiar to the Ephrata Cloister. How much instruction in theoretical and practical notation Conrad Beisel may have received from Ludwig during the latter sojourn on the Cocalico, it is somewhat difficult to surmise.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO AUBURN CITIZEN

Leonard Prosser, Age 23 Years, Passed Away Thursday Morning at Home on W. Twentieth St.

Pneumonia claimed the life of Leonard Prosser, a young husband and the father of two children at 5:35 o'clock Thursday morning at his home at 324 West Twentieth street. He had been sick since last Saturday.

The deceased, employed at the Auburn foundry since December 9th, was 23 years of age last March 9th. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Prosser, residing three and a half miles east of Auburn and he was born on the parental farm. He was united in marriage with Beulah Rowe of Fairfield township on December 29th, 1929.

He is survived by his widow, the two children, Katrina Mae and Richard Leroy, his parents, three brothers, Blaine and Robert at home and Donald of Connersville, Ind., and two sisters, Naomi, living with the parents and Mrs. John Brewis of South Bend.

The body was removed to Dilgard Bros. funeral home to await the funeral arrangements.

LIFE OF THE LATE BENJAMIN F. HILKEY OF AUBURN

Benjamin Franklin Hilkey, son of John and Susannah Hilkey, was born in DeKalb county, November 15, 1851, and died at his home on East Seventh street, March 10, 1919, at the age of 67 years, 4 months and 5 days.

He was the eighth child of a family of eleven children. Four brothers survive, Amos of Auburn, Daniel and James of California, and Samuel of Jackson township.

His father and three brothers served in the Civil war, the father never returning and leaving the widow with several small children to care for. He was united in marriage to Rose Ann M. Martin December 25, 1872, to whom seven children were born, four having preceded him to the spirit world.

Of his immediate relatives he leaves a widow and three children: Mrs. Rose Murray, Curtis Hilkey and Mrs. Roy Prosser, and seven grandchildren, all of Auburn, to mourn his departure.

At early life he became a follower of Christ, uniting with the Hopewell U. B. church, later transferring his membership to the First M. E. church in Auburn.

FORMER AUBURN MAN FOUND DEAD IN BED

Curtis Hilkey, Former Superintendent of Auburn Automobile Co., Passes Away at Metuchen, New Jersey

Word of the death of Curtis Hilkey, a former resident of Auburn, at his home at Metuchen, N. J., came as a shock to his friends in this city Thursday. Mr. Hilkey, a former superintendent of the Auburn Automobile Co. plant, was found dead in bed.

Mr. Hilkey was born in Jackson township, DeKalb county, and spent most of his life in this county. He was employed by the Auburn Automobile Co. for many years and went to Connersville, Ind., with the company when it moved to that city.

No details regarding his death were given in the message telling of his passing away. The body will be brought to Auburn and is expected to arrive Sunday. It will be taken to the Dilgard funeral home and funeral rites will probably be held on Monday. Burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mr. Hilkey is survived by his wife and a son, Wayne, who returned only a short time ago after serving in the armed forces. Mrs. Rue Murray of North Main street, Auburn, who left two weeks ago with Mr. Murray, for Orlando, Fla., to spend the winter months, and Mrs. Roy Prosser of east of Auburn, are sisters of the deceased. Linas Hilkey of 1503 South Van-Buren street, Auburn, and Frank Hilkey, a member of the board of county commisisoners who resides at the corner of Nineteenth and Cedar streets, are cousins.

PIONEER RESIDENT DIES AT AGE OF 91

Pneumonia Fatal to Mrs. Rosann Hilkey, who Passed Away at Home of Mrs. Faye Miller in Auburn Thursday

One of the oldest residents of Auburn, Mrs. Rosann Hilkey, 91, passed away at 5 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Faye Miller, 112 West Third street, Auburn. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

Mrs. Hilkey had been in good health and was able to get around until the week before Christmas when she became ill with influenza and pneumonia developed. She had been making her home with a son-in-law, Mel Herrick of Waterloo, and she was brought to the Miller home in Auburn on Wednesday of this week in the Dilgard ambulance.

She was born in Jackson township and had lived in DeKalb county all of her life. She had resided in Auburn about nine years. She was married in 1872 to Benjamin Hilkey who died in 1919.

Survivors include three children Mrs. Rue Murray of Orlando, Fla., formerly of near Auburn, Mrs. Roy Prosser of east of Auburn, and Curtis Hilkey of Metuchen, N. J.; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was a member of the Methodist church in Auburn.

The body will remain at Dilgard's funeral home until after funeral services to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. A. P. Homer, pastor of the Auburn Methodist church, will officiate and burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.
